

High streets levelled up with £7 million funding boost

Government launches new High Street Accelerators pilot to help communities and councils join up on long-term regeneration