

Highways England and community plant poppies along Remembrance Way

Poppies have been planted alongside a main road named Remembrance Way in a huge community effort led by Highways England.