

Highways England first year progress report on smart motorways stocktake

The Department for Transport has received the Highways England first year progress report on the All Lanes Running motorways stocktake.