

HK youth shine at “Skills Olympics”

The Construction Industry Council sent seven competitors to participate in six categories in WorldSkills Lyon 2024, where they won two medallions for excellence – achieving the best ever results by Hong Kong construction industry players.

News.gov.hk spoke to two awardees about their experiences and the challenges they encountered during the competition, while their instructors provided an insight into the rigorous training needed for success.

The story is available at www.news.gov.hk/eng/feature today (November 3) in text and video format.
