

HKETO, Brussels reaches out to international talents with talk at student career day in Greece

The Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Brussels (HKETO, Brussels) gave a talk to students of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki in Greece on November 12 (Thessaloniki time), continuing to reach out to students and graduates in Europe as part of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government's efforts to attract overseas talents to Hong Kong. The talk was attended by over 1 000 students online.

HKETO, Brussels took part in the Career Day of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece's largest university. Speaking via video link, the Assistant Representative of HKETO, Brussels, Mr Henry Tsoi, gave a presentation to local students about the excellent study and career opportunities Hong Kong offers to international students. He encouraged students to look into the study possibilities and the different schemes offered by the HKSAR Government and Hong Kong's tertiary institutions, which rank among the top in the world.

Mr Tsoi also informed students of Hong Kong's latest developments and policies which promote talent admission, including the immigration facilitation measures under the framework of the Hong Kong Talent List.
