

HKSAR Government delegation visits Xiamen

The delegation of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) Government, led by the Chief Secretary for Administrative, Mr Matthew Cheung Kin-chung, today (November 29) visited the first Hong Kong enterprise that invested in the setting up of factories in Xiamen after the reform and opening up of the country. The delegation went to the smart factory of the enterprise to learn about the innovative manufacturing management system it developed.

Mr Cheung and the delegation then headed to the Xiamen Campus of Huaqiao University and met the Secretary of the Huaqiao University Committee of the CPC, Mr Guan Yifan; the University's Vice-President Professor Zeng Lu; and other university officials. They also visited dormitories and facilities of the University and met students from Hong Kong currently studying there to learn about their study life.

At noon, Mr Cheung met the Mayor of the Xiamen Municipal Government, Mr Zhuang Jiahua, to exchange views on strengthening co-operation between Hong Kong and Xiamen.

The delegation also had lunch with Hong Kong people currently working in Xiamen. Mr Cheung said that the HKSAR Government will continue to enhance co-operation on various fronts with Mainland provinces and cities to broaden career development opportunities for the people of Hong Kong. The HKSAR Government will also maintain close contact with Mainland authorities to seek more facilitation policies and measures for Hong Kong people.

Mr Cheung and the delegation embarked on the return journey to Hong Kong in the afternoon.
