

Home improvements to better protect Allesley homes from flooding

The Environment Agency has started work to install property flood resilience measures to more than 30 homes in Allesley, Coventry.