

Home Office funds activities to support Windrush community

Charities, grassroots organisations and other community groups have been awarded a share of over £150,000 from the Home Office's Community Engagement Fund.