

“Hong Kong as an Information Society (2018 Edition)” published

The Census and Statistics Department (C&SD) released today (June 29) a publication entitled "Hong Kong as an Information Society (2018 Edition)".

This publication aims at presenting statistics compiled from a variety of data sources relevant to the development of an information society in Hong Kong, including the recent developments in information and communication technology services, the external trade of information and communication technology goods, and the use and penetration of information technology in the business, household and government sectors. Analyses of the demand for manpower in the information technology field and development of relevant educational programmes are also provided.

The publication is available for downloading free of charge from the website of the C&SD at www.censtatd.gov.hk/products_and_services/products/publications/statistical_report/commerce_and_industry/index_cd_B1110006_dt_latest.jsp.

Enquiries about this publication can be directed to the Science and Technology Statistics Section of the C&SD (Tel: 3903 7291 or email: itsurvey@censtatd.gov.hk).
