

Hong Kong Customs maintains necessary services

â€‹Hong Kong Customs today (July 20) announced that apart from maintaining customs clearance at the boundary control points that remain open, the Customer Service Centre located on the third floor of the Customs Headquarters Building in North Point also continues to be in operation to facilitate the submission of applications to the department by members of the public and industry practitioners.