

Hong Kong Customs' social media accounts to open soon

â€‹Hong Kong Customs will launch a new social media channel on February 22 to strengthen communication and connection with different sectors of the community through its Facebook page and Instagram account.

Customs will disseminate the department's latest activities to the public via the official social media accounts. Departmental information will also be published to improve message delivery, enhance transparency and promote the professional excellence of the department.

Members of the public are welcome to view, follow and share the information of Hong Kong Customs' Facebook page (www.facebook.com/hongkongcustoms) and Instagram account (www.instagram.com/hongkongcustoms) through the hyperlinks or QR codes in the Annex.