

Hong Kong Flower Show 2022 cancelled

In view of the latest epidemic developments, the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) announced today (February 8) that the Hong Kong Flower Show 2022, originally scheduled to be held from March 11 to 20 at Victoria Park, has been cancelled in order to reduce social contacts and the risk of spreading COVID-19 in the community.

A spokesman for the LCSD said, "The department will closely monitor the epidemic situation and consider displaying the flowers in different modes when appropriate."
