

Hong Kong Museum of History temporarily closed

The Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) announced today (November 21) that due to special circumstances which happened nearby, the Hong Kong Museum of History in Yau Tsim Mong District is closed to ensure the safety of venue users and staff members. The department will closely monitor the situation and announce venue arrangements in a timely manner.

Subject to the situation, more cultural and leisure facilities in the same district and any other district which may be affected will also be closed early and at short notice to ensure the safety of venue users. Members of the public who plan to go to those venues are advised to contact the venues concerned or 1823 in advance.
