

Hong Kong Police's National Security Department arrested and charged four men and three women

The National Security Department of the Hong Kong Police today (September 28) charged seven persons, aged 16 to 25, each with one count of conspiracy to incite the commission by other persons of the offence of subversion under Article 22 and 23 of the Hong Kong National Security Law. These seven persons include the 16-year-old woman arrested this afternoon, the 18-year-old woman being detained at the Correctional Services Department, and four men and one woman whose bail arrangements have been revoked earlier today.

The case will be mentioned at the West Kowloon Magistrates' Courts tomorrow afternoon (September 29).
