

Hong Kong Police's National Security Department launched enforcement operation under National Security Law (2)

The National Security Department of the Hong Kong Police Force (NSD) arrested a 51-year-old woman and a 57-year old man in June this year for collusion with a foreign country or with external elements to endanger national security.

The NSD today (July 21) revoked the bail arrangements of the two arrested persons. They are being detained for further investigation.
