

Horizon Scanning Case Study: Point of Care manufacture

Horizon scanning at the MHRA leads to a proposed new framework to enable the supply and increase in the availability of innovative new medicinal products made at the point of care to patients.