

Housing boost for North East communities as Combined Authority deepens strategic ties with Homes England

Housing ambitions to support people across the North East boosted by Strategic Place Partnership between local leaders and national agency