

Housing Bureau to organise Transitional Housing Open Day (with photos)

The Housing Bureau (HB) will organise the second Transitional Housing Open Day on September 24 (Sunday) to introduce transitional housing projects to the public. On-site applications from those in need are also accepted. A number of operating organisations will set up booths to introduce the living environment, community services, ancillary transport facilities and amenities, etc of various transitional housing projects.

Details of the open day are as follows:

Date: September 24 (Sunday)

Time: 10am to 4pm

Venue: Mong Kok Community Hall (L2, Mong Kok Complex, 557 Shanghai Street, Mong Kok)

Round-trip shuttle bus service to the transitional housing projects below will also be provided on the day. As seats are limited, participants will need to pre-register on-site. Details of the shuttle bus service are as follows:

Transitional housing mainly assists people/families who are waiting for traditional public rental housing for not less than three years. People/families with imminent housing needs could also be catered for. More information on transitional housing can be found at the thematic website (www.hb.gov.hk/eng/policy/housing/policy/transitional/index.html) or the Transitional Housing Information Counter at the Hong Kong Housing Authority Customer Service Centre and the Housing Department Cash Allowance Office.
