

Housing Bureau to organise Transitional Housing Open Day (with photos)

To enhance the promotion of transitional housing projects to the public and to facilitate people in need to make an application, the Housing Bureau (HB) will organise a Transitional Housing Open Day on July 15 (Saturday). A number of operating organisations will set up booths to introduce the living environment, community services, ancillary transport facilities and amenities, etc. of various transitional housing projects. On-site applications are also accepted.

Details of the open day are as follows:

Date: July 15 (Saturday)

Time: 10.30am to 4pm

Venue: Multi-purpose Hall of the Henry G Leong Yaumatei Community Centre (60 Public Square Street, Yau Ma Tei)

Round-trip shuttle buses to the transitional housing projects below will also be provided on the day. As seats are limited, participants will need to pre-register on-site. Details of the shuttle bus services are as follows:

Transitional Housing Project	Departure time (from Multi-purpose Hall of the Henry G Leong Yaumatei Community)
United Court and Pok Oi Kong Ha Wai Village in Yuen Long	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 11.30am• 2pm• 3pm
"A Square" in Stanley	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 11.30am• 3pm

Further to the launch of central common application form in June, the HB continues to enhance co-ordination and improve the application procedure, including organising this Open Day to facilitate the public in applying for different transitional housing projects with one-stop arrangement.

Transitional housing mainly assists people who are waiting for traditional public rental housing for not less than three years. Units will be also allocated to the people/families who are inadequately housed or with imminent needs to receive social assistance, etc. More information on transitional housing is at the thematic website (www.hb.gov.hk/eng/policy/housing/policy/transitional/index.html) or the Transitional Housing Information Counter located in the Hong Kong Housing Authority Customer Service Centre and the Housing Department Cash Allowance

Office.
