

Housing numbers in Wokingham

I am making the case for a slower rate of development for our area as the Council moves to prepare a new local plan. I am responding to the government's latest consultation on planning issues and will follow up my written submission with a meeting with the Minister.