

Human rights must remain the guiding light for our work at the UN: UK national statement at Third Committee

UK Ambassador James Kariuki delivered the UK national statement on human rights at the UN Third Committee.