

Husband-and-wife directors of care recruitment company banned after failing to pay more than £30 million in tax

The pair significantly under-declared the amount of tax their company owed to HM Revenue and Customs.