

ICAC to resume full-scale operation next Monday

The following press release is issued on behalf of the Independent Commission Against Corruption:

The ICAC announced today (September 11) that starting from next Monday (September 14), the Commission's services will resume operation on full scale.

The ICAC will remain vigilant and continue to implement appropriate measures to reduce the risk of the spread of COVID-19, including:

- Staggered working and lunch hours for ICAC staff;
- All ICAC staff and members of the public will have their body temperature checked when entering the ICAC Building and Regional Offices. Only those with normal temperature will be allowed access; and
- In accordance with the Prevention and Control of Disease (Wearing of Mask) Regulation, members of the public are required to wear a mask while they are inside the ICAC Building and Regional Offices.

The ICAC will continue to review the situation and adjust the relevant arrangements and preventive measures as and when necessary.
