

Illegal boaters on Anglian rivers faced fines of nearly £5k in February

6 boaters have appeared in court for not registering their vessels – and the Environment Agency is warning others not to make the same mistake