

Immigration Department clarifies rumours on Internet

Regarding an online rumour claiming that, the Immigration Department (ImmD) shall refuse Hong Kong residents not in possession of the closed area permit to enter Hong Kong via land boundary control points due to the interruption of public transport services, ImmD stressed today (November 13) that such a rumour is totally unfounded. The ImmD will continue to provide immigration services to all passengers at all control points.