

Import and export declaration charge to be capped at $200 from tomorrow

The Government's measure to cap the import and export declaration (TDEC) charge at $200 will take effect from tomorrow (August 1). The cap will apply to goods imported to Hong Kong, or exported or re-exported from Hong Kong, on or after August 1.

Under the above measure, for each TDEC involving goods at a value above $1.644 million, the TDEC charge will remain at $200.

The arrangements for the lodgement of TDECs and payment of charges will remain unchanged.
