

Inclusion, partnership and an international approach to fragility and security

Statement by the Rt Hon James Cleverly MP at the Security Council open debate on the challenges of maintaining peace and security in fragile contexts