

Increased risk of deer collisions as clocks go back

National Highways and British Deer Society warn drivers to be extra vigilant for deer on or near roads after the clocks go back this weekend