

Independent report: Harvest standard specification for fisheries management plans in English waters

This harvest standard specification (HSS) describes the common framework that will be used to develop harvest strategies for England's fisheries.