

Centre will soon come out with an updated National Water Policy

Government of India will soon come out with an updated version of National Water Policy to effect key changes in Water Governance Structure, Regulatory Framework, besides setting up of a National Bureau of Water Use Efficiency.

Go to Source

Author:

Language preservation and development must take the shape of a people's movement

The Vice President, Shri M. Venkaiah Naidu today said that language preservation and development cannot be the task of government alone and added that it has to take the form of people's movement. 'Community participation is essential for preserving and protecting languages', he added.

Go to Source

Author:

Publications Division bags nine awards in Delhi Book Fair 2019

Publications Division has won nine awards in various categories for its participation in Delhi Book Fair 2019. These awards have been given by the Federation of Indian Publishers – the apex body of Indian publishers that organises Delhi Book Fair.

Go to Source

Author:

Prime Minister addresses the United National General Assembly

Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi addressed the 74th session of the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) in New York today.

Evoking Mahatma Gandhi, Prime Minister said that Gandhiji's message of truth and non-violence is relevant even today for peace, progress and development of the world.

Go to Source

Author:

RailTel Corporation of India Ltd post net profit of Rs.110 crore during 2018-19

RailTel Corporation of India Ltd a body behind transforming Railway stations into Digital hubs by providing public Wi-Fi at major Railway stations held its 19th Annual General Meeting today.

Go to Source

Author: