

PM attends convocation of Gujarat Forensic Sciences University

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, today attended the convocation ceremony of the Gujarat Forensic Sciences University.

He described the University and its students as pioneers. He appreciated the students for their persistence in selecting a stream that is conventionally believed to be unconventional, but is highly important for today's age. He said that these traits of self-belief and determination will help the students in times to come.

Go to Source

Author:

Text of PM's speech at a public meeting in Valsad, Gujarat

Text of PM's speech at a public meeting in Valsad, Gujarat

Go to Source

Author:

Shri Piyush Goyal, Minister of Railways & Coal reviews the performance of Central Railway, Western Railway & Konkan Railway

Shri Piyush Goyal, Minister of Railways & Coal reviewed the performance of Zonal Railways viz Central Railway, Western Railway & Konkan Railway with the General Managers and other senior officials of Zonal Railways & Konkan Railway in Mumbai today i.e. 23rd August, 2018.

Go to Source

Author:

Permanent Representatives to the UN from 12 Countries Visit Election Commission of India

A delegation of Permanent Representatives to the United Nations from twelve countries, namely Equatorial Guinea, Comoros, Niger, St. Kitts & Nevis, Grenada, Malta, Marshal Islands, Dominica, St. Lucia, Eswatini, Zambia and Kiribati visited the Election Commission of India today.

Go to Source

Author:

PM to visit Gujarat on 23rd August

The Prime Minister, Shri Narendra Modi, will visit Gujarat on 23rd August, 2018.

At a large public meeting in Jujwa village of Valsad district, the Prime Minister will witness the collective e-Gruhpravesh of beneficiaries of the Pradhan Mantri Awaas Yojana (Gramin) – a flagship scheme of the Union Government which envisions “Housing for All.”

More than one lakh houses have been completed in the State of Gujarat.

Go to Source

Author: