

I&B Minister meets women employees of the Ministry on the occasion of International Women's Day

Minister for Information & Broadcasting Shri M .Venkaiah Naidu today met the Women employees of the Ministry of I&B on the occasion of International Women's Day.

NITI Aayog presents the 2nd edition of Women Transforming India – celebrating women who are breaking the glass ceiling

On the occasion of International Women's Day 2017, NITI Aayog, in partnership with the UN in India and MyGov, presents the second edition of Women Transforming India, an online contest to celebrate women achievers, leaders and change makers from across the country.

11th North East Business Summit begins in New Delhi tomorrow

The 11th North East Business Summit (NEBS) begins here tomorrow. The two-day event is an initiative to facilitate investment, highlight strengths of the North-East Region (NER) and business opportunities which North-East has to offer.

Provide financial help to women to strengthen women cooperatives in the country: Shri Radha Mohan Sing

The Union Minister of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Shri Radha Mohan Singh has said that it is imperative to provide financial help to women so as to strengthen women cooperatives in the country as there is great potential for the development and success of women cooperatives.

Work on Ken Betwa Link to begin by The Middle of This Year: Vijay Goe

Union Minister of State for Water Resources, River Development and Ganga Rejuvenation Shri Vijay Goel has stated that work on Ken Betwa link project will begin by the middle of this year. Chairing the twelfth meeting of the Special Committee for Inter-linking of river held in New Delhi today Shri Goel said though deliberation on river linking project were going on in our country for many years, it is going to take real shape now only.