

Infant formula: CMA sets out concerns and potential solutions

CMA interim report outlines concerns regarding the infant formula market – all of which appear to be contributing to parents paying over the odds.