

Information and events for British citizens in Italy

The British Embassy in Rome holds meetings across Italy to update British citizens working and living in the country.