

Information and outreach events for British citizens in Malta

The British High Commission in Malta is holding meetings in Malta and Gozo to update UK nationals working and living on the islands, and answer queries on their rights as Britain leaves the EU.