

Interactive listening: Engaging children with testimonies of Caribbean migration

In 2018 the British Library ran their Windrush Exhibition, Songs from a Strange Land, which featured multiple recordings from the sound archive. To coincide with this the Learning Team designed a digital education programme entitled 'Walk in their footsteps: Windrush Voices,' which was later developed into an on-site workshop for...