

International Day to End Impunity for Crimes against Journalists: joint statement to the OSCE, November 2024

The UK and other members of the Informal Group of Friends on the Safety of Journalists call on Russia and Belarus to comply with their international obligations and commitments on safety of journalists.