

International law must be “fit for the challenges of 21st century”

International law must remain in lockstep with the changing 21st century world and the needs of citizens or face irrelevance the Lord Chancellor, Alex Chalk, will stress to the G7's justice leaders today (9 May 2024).