

International safety rules for High Speed Craft brought into force

International rules on safety levels for High Speed Craft (HSC) are being brought into force under UK law.