

International sheep farmers share top tips

Sheep experts from Scotland's Rural College have taken part in an international workshop in Spain designed to increase ewe productivity (number of lambs reared per ewe joined).