

Investigation into dumped waste trailers in East Midlands

The Environment Agency is appealing for information on a series of incidents involving the dumping of trailers packed with shredded or baled waste.