

Investors, developers, and local and national government leaders unite to drive forward ambitions to create 1.5 million homes across this Parliament

Leaders from over 250 institutions meet with the aim of creating new partnerships to increase scale of housebuilding and regeneration across England