

IOM Portugal supports UK nationals to register for residency

New programme launched by the International Organisation for Migration with funding from the UK Government to assist British nationals in Portugal.