

IPO launches bilingual website as part of Welsh language commitment

Visitors to the Intellectual Property Office's home page and main navigation pages on GOV.UK will now see that these are bilingual, as the IPO completes the first phase of its programme of work to provide digital information...