

ISD clarifies rumour

Regarding an online post claiming that the senior management of the Information Services Department (ISD) had forced colleagues to sign a letter to support the police, a spokesperson for the department stated today (July 29) that the allegation was absolutely not true and it was entirely a fabrication.

The spokesperson said it was regrettable and deplorable that some people were deliberately spreading false information to mislead the public.