

Islanders get round-the-clock care

Thanks to the first aid posts established by the Hospital Authority (HA) at four general out-patient clinics in the Islands District, local residents can have 24-hour access to medical assistance.

News.gov.hk spoke with the doctor in charge of the HA Mui Wo General Out-patient Clinic to learn more about the purposes served by the posts, and to a local resident who shared his experience of receiving first aid assistance at the Mui Wo post.

The story is available at www.news.gov.hk/eng/feature today (February 25) in text and video format.
