McDonnell MP, Labour's Shadow Chancellor, commenting on a report from The UK in a Changing Europe, 'A successful Brexit – four economic tests', said:

"This is an important and detailed piece of work which should be looked at seriously by everyone involved in the Brexit negotiations.

"It is vital for the good of the country that we can hold the Government to account using a series of tests like this, but to do so we will need much greater openness and transparency than the Government has shown so far.

"That's why Labour's amendments to the Bill in Parliament this week will seek to require regular progress reports from the Government and full Parliamentary scrutiny."
