

Jumping headlong into life after cancer

An Animal Care student is living life to the full after finishing treatment for blood cancer.