

KCH announces a suspected sexual offence involving two patients

The following is issued on behalf of the Hospital Authority:

The spokesperson for Kwai Chung Hospital (KCH) made the following announcement regarding a suspected sexual offence involving two patients today (September 14):

At around 9.30 pm last night (September 13), a nurse in a ward of KCH was notified of an incident involving suspected indecent behavior between two adult male patients that occurred in the toilet of the ward. The nurse immediately followed up and investigated the incident as well as notified the police. The police subsequently arrested one of the patients in the ward.

The hospital is highly concerned about the incident and has immediately arranged the concerned patients to be separated into different wards. The hospital will fully co-operate with the police investigation.
