

Key statistics on service demand of A&E Departments and occupancy rates in public hospitals

The following is issued on behalf of the Hospital Authority:

As the recent service demand situation of public hospitals has largely returned to the normal levels, the Hospital Authority (HA) will cease to release the daily service statistics of Accident and Emergency Departments and the occupancy rate in public hospitals from tomorrow (May 2). HA will continue to monitor the service situation of public hospitals and to make necessary operation arrangement and resources deployment.

The key service statistics of yesterday (April 30) are in the appended table.
